INSTITUTION HAS CREATED AN ECOSYSTEM FOR INNOVATIONS, INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEMS (IKS), INCLUDING AWARENESS ABOUT IPR, ESTABLISHMENT OF IPR CELL, INCUBATION CENTRE AND OTHER INITIATIVES FOR THE CREATION AND TRANSFER OF KNOWLEDGE/TECHNOLOGY AND THE OUTCOMES OF THE SAME ARE EVIDENT

3.2.1. Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations, Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS), including awareness about IPR, establishment of IPR Cell, Incubation Centre and other initiatives for the creation and transfer of knowledge/technology and the outcomes of the same are evident

An ecosystem for innovations has been created by the institution for creation and transfer of knowledge. To uplift and cultivate the spirit of young minds, this institution has created an ideal atmosphere, strong infrastructure, and many resources to help students and faculty reach their full potential in teaching, in research, and in other creative endeavours.

Promotion of Research: In accordance with the perspective plan, a defined research policy has been framed. As per the research policy the Institute has well-structured Research And Guidance Cell which regularly notifies about proposal calls and encourages the faculty members to procure research projects from different funding agencies, participate and conduct seminars on current advancements in different subjects. Several faculties have received research grants (Net Amount Rs. 37,43,501/- from 2017-2022) and participated in different workshops, seminars. The common research facility, a well-equipped laboratory exclusively dedicated for research, has been set up for research fellows in the institute. For the students, science innovation centre has been set up to motivate and inculcate among the students the sense of scientific culture and innovation by mentoring them for participating in different scientific model and poster competitions and organize online scientific discussion and awareness sessions on relevant scientific issues.

Research and Guidance Cell

Introduction:

Higher education plays an essential role in society by creating new knowledge, transmitting it to students and fostering innovation. Research-based education has lately received increasing interest both among researchers in higher education and in public discussion.

The institution has a well-structured RESEARCH AND GUIDANCE CELL which promotes up taking of research among faculty members.

Composition:

The research and guidance cell of the college includes faculty members of different fraternities with experience of active research and guidance. The cell has the provision of being reconstituted every year as found necessary by the chairman. The following staff members are currently in the charge of this cell:

- a) Dr.Rajyasri Neogy (Principal), Chairman
- b) Dr.Shilajit Barua (Convenor)
- c) Dr.Dasarath Mal
- d) Dr.Swarnali Sharma
- e) Dr.Ishita Mukherjee
- f) Mr.Uttam Kr. Mukherjee
- g) Dr.Buddhadeb Adhikary

Members of the cell meets at regular intervals with the agenda of improving infrastructural, instrumental and academic support for research and innovation in the institute. This cell regularly notifies the faculty members about the call for research proposals from various national and state level funding agencies and encourages the faculty members to submit proposals for possible funding. The cell also organizes various workshops, seminars and webinars on current scenario of research and development in different domains. Eminent personalities who have significantly contributed in research, social activities, industries, are invited as resource persons in the webinars, seminars and workshops.

The research and guidance cell also organizes workshops, seminars and webinars on research methodology and intellectual property rights to inculcate ideas of innovation and research among students and faculty members.

The research and guidance cell operates from a well-resourced COMMON RESEARCH FACILITY, an infrastructural and instrumental facility solely dedicated for research in the institution. This is a laboratory wherein several instruments for research in biology and chemistry are available, that are accessed by students, research scholars and faculty members.

Propagation of Indian Knowledge System: IKS is a collective offering of Indian knowledge (Vedic practices to traditional folklore) presented in codified modenot only in Sanskrit, Pali and Prakrit, but also in all native languages of India, that remained unexplored for decades. The institute took initiative for desimination of IKS through organization of Yoga shivirs, Yoga workshops and Yoga certificate courses, organization of seminars and discussion session on traditional knowledge based scientific and philosophical practices. The internet radio station of the college broadcasts programmes on tradition Indian practices in its weekly programmes “Aitijya”. Students of the institute were active participants in these programmes and were enriched with the traditional knowledge of rich cultural heritage.

Sample of programmes conducted by the institution to promote Indian Knowledge System

Awareness about Intellectual Property Rights: IPR is one of the means of securing intangible assets that are still accessible to the general public and easily replicable by anyone. Ideas about IPR safeguard and encourage the creation and use of new innovations, trademarks, designs, creative works, and other intangible assets that are the basis for new product development, distribution, and service offering. During 2017-2022, IPR related information dissemination amongst students, faculty members and other stakeholders regarding various aspects of IPR was carried out through organization of seminars, workshops and awareness programmes on patenting, plagiarism and IPR. All the programmes and activities related to IPR was organized under the supervision of a well structured IPR cell established in February 2020.

Sample Flyer of Webinars and workshops on IPR awareness

Promotion of Innovation and competence building: For inculcating the ability to intuitively generate innovative concepts in different spheres of science and to inspire the college's innovation community, a Science Innovation Centre that foster connections between individuals, ideas, and resources has been established in the institution. This centre had guided students in innovative projects for different model competitions, poster competitions, scientific report writing and also organized different science awareness programmes. A competence building cell is also operational in the institute which organizes various student-centric activities like intra and inters institutional science model competitions, essay and article writing competitions, quiz and debate competitions as well as competence building workshops to trigger the innovative brains of the students.

Development of incubation centre: For providing a platform for young people and new-age entrepreneurs to turn their creative ideas into workable corporate plans, the institute had set up several cells like competence building cell, placement cell and career guidance cell as a part of developing the concept of incubation centre. On a regular basis, student mentorship and career counselling programmes are carried out in collaboration with various professional institutions. Several workshops, seminars and hands on training programmes have been organized to inculcate the flair of innovation and entrepreneurship amongst students. In addition to their regular curriculum students are offered for several add-on and certificate courses to supplement them with hands on training for inculcating professional skill and escalating self confidence amongst the students.

Publications: The institution has a publication cell of its own, which is responsible for publication of annual magazine and edited volumes, wherein articles and creative writings by faculty members and students are published. The Education Research and Analysis Journal published by our institution published research articles written by different faculty members of the institution. Faculty members also published their research finding in several peer reviewed journals which are scopus indexed and included in UGC care list.

Link of publication page in college website: <http://erajournal.vjrc.ac.in/index.php>

Information dissemination to society: The institute sought to find unique ways to reach the society as a whole. Attempt was made to spread knowledge and information not only to its students but also to the larger society. The 2020 COVID pandemic has accelerated such need resulting in establishment of RADIO KOLKATA, an internet radio facility exclusively of the college itself. This radio station organizes educational, entertaining, informative, and culturally enriched programmes. Its sustainable community outreach strategies is the organisation of programmes on values, gender issues, national, international, and local days of importance, social issues, health awareness, agriculture, heritage, science and technology, current affairs, as well as entertainment programmes on music, story, drama, and children's programmes.
