Scholarship Policy

The Principal, through concerned cells/committees of IQAC, executes the policies for student welfare by means of financial assistance. The policies are ratified by the Governing Body before execution. These policies are-

1. Appointing nodal persons for campaigning and proper disbursement of Government scholarships through the portal
2. Yearly budgetary allocation in the student-aid fund to benefit economically backward and meritorious students
3. Ensuring financial assistance to economically weak students from Government and college-allocated funds
4. Generating a philanthropic fund for awarding meritorious students as a token of appreciation and encouragement
