Feedback Analysis Report

- It is observed that students are fairly satisfied with the performance of teachers in the overall teaching-learning process. It is also observed that the teachers are able to meet the demands of the students.
- Teachers are able to impart proper guidance by analyzing the individual needs of the students. It is observed that students are fairly satisfied with the efforts of the teachers. But in the case of mentoring a constant follow up is needed.
- Students are moderately satisfied with the efforts of the institution in the field of student exchange, field visit etc. But they are satisfied to a great extent as the institute/teachers use the student centric method such as experimental learning, participative learning, and problem solving methodology for enhancing learning experiences.
- It is observed that the teachers are somehow lacking in using ICT tools such as LCD projector, multimedia etc.
- In fine, it can be said that students are satisfied to a great extent with overall teaching learning process. As the institute provides optimum support for the all-round development of the students.
